Tips on Setting Up and Using Your Success Tips

Setting Up Your Success Tips

If you would like to automate your marketing, you can set up your success tips to be automatically sent to your list on a regular basis by pre-loading them into your database management system. Most database management software systems have the capability of sending automated or timed emails so that you load them once, schedule their delivery and leave them alone. Examples of the more popular email management systems are AWeber (www.aweber.com), Constant Contact (www.constantcontact.com), iContact (www.icontact.com), 1ShoppingCart (1shoppingcart.com), Infusionsoft (www.infusionsoft.com), or Ontraport (www.ontraport.com). You can research these to determine which solution is a best fit for your business needs.

For blog posts, you can simply preload your blogs and schedule in advance the days you want them to post.

As always, we recommend that you customize these success tips with your own stories, anecdotes and personal messages. But keep them short as that is what makes this tool so effective!

Using Your Success Tips

Staying in touch with your list in a meaningful way is the key to creating relationships, developing trust and familiarity, and ultimately converting your prospects into clients. Using numerous tools and delivering them through a variety of mediums allows you to be creative in your marketing which is more attractive to your prospects and clients.

Success Tips are a fantastic tool to use because they are short, provide great value, and can be delivered in written, audio or video form.

We recommend using your Success Tips in conjunction with the other Ready2Go products (<http://www.Ready2GoMarketingSolutions.com>), as all the Ready2Go products coordinate together.

Here are a few ways you can use your Ready2Go Tips: (also, for consistency with this bulleted list either add a period to all or remove from all)

- Blog posts
- A “Thought of the Week” or “Success Tip of the Week”, that provides value, is easy to read, and is a meaningful touch.
- A short article in your newsletter
- Can be recorded and emailed in audio form, placed on your blog, on your website or sent in your newsletter.
- Can be developed into a short video training and be emailed to your list, placed on your blog, on your website, or sent in your newsletter.

A to Z's of Success Tips

(This is one of 12 tips in the Success Tips package)

Your Success Needs Help

We live in an age of DIY or ‘do-it-yourself’. Computer acting up? There’s a ‘hack’ to fix it. Want to do your own taxes? There’s an app to get you started. Want to update your kitchen? No problem! Why not sign up for that seminar at the local home improvement center?

There’s no question the DIY movement has meant great advances in our lives – increasing our sense of self-reliance, building our confidence, and allowing us the opportunity to be creative problem solvers.

But sometimes DIY can feel more like an obligation or societal expectation – as if somehow, if we don’t tackle something alone, it’s a sign of weakness, incompetence, or a character flaw. There’s nothing wrong with being a jack-of-all-trades, but all of us need support at some point.

Seeking support for your goals can be an opportunity to maximize your potential. When others take on tasks you either don’t like or don’t excel at, it frees you up to do the things you love to do – the things you’re great at doing. Getting support increases your chances of success, often with much less effort and stress.

Struggling with commitment? Feel your motivation waning? Maybe you need a coach to hold you accountable. Lacking the knowledge or expertise? There are many people who’ve ‘been there, done that’ that you can go to for information or advice. Or perhaps you need someone to look after the kids while you take that night school class.

Sure it can feel great, rolling up your sleeves and accomplishing your goals from the sweat of your own efforts. But we all need support at some point.

So the next time you’re tempted to fix that leaky faucet, trouble shoot your technology glitch, or tackle that new project at work remember, there’s no shame in calling in reinforcements when the time calls for it, in fact, it’s a sign of strength. Because reaching your dreams, doesn’t have to be a DIY project.

What is one job or task that you can ask for help with today?
